Assessor's comments:

This is not really a doctoral presentation in the sense that it is not a presentation of the student's phd proposal & phd results. This is a paper written with Robert Brooks & seems to have been presented somewhere. The student's frequent use of 'Guy' the slang 'Guy' for authors is too informal & shows lack of respect for more prominent researchers in the field.

Assessor's comments:

Extensive literature has been utilised → well done !

Well structured presentation .

High motivation towards researching the topic should be appreciated .

! You really need this to complete your Ph.D. 😊
